Dear Dick:

I am sorry that you were not able to address our student body on the subject, "Military Strategy and Posture of the USSR." However, your designated hitter, Carl Duckett, cleared the bases and scored with the students.

His introductory remarks on the Soviet Union's objectives, strategy, and posture, provided the students with an excellent background for further discussion during the wide-ranging question and answer period.

Thanks, Dick, for making Carl Duckett available to us and for his contribution to our educational program. Now, you'll have to work yourself into the lineup.

Sincerely,

WALTER J. WOOLWINE
